The Queen's Moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

Sheriffs appointed for the Year enſuing.

Cardigan, Hugh Lloyd, Eſq;
Stafford, Harry Grey, Eſq;

Berlin, January 16. N. S. The King continues ſtill at Potſdam. Some Days ago the Hereditary Prince of Heſſe went thither to take Leave of his Majeſty, after which he ſet out for Caſſel. Monſieur Jagozinsky, one of the Czar's Chamberlains, is arrived here, with ſome Inſtructions to the Muſcovite Envoy, in relation to the Treaty concluded between the King of Pruſſia and Prince Menzikoff, at the Camp before Stetin, and it is ſaid the Differences that aroſe upon it, are in a fair way of being adjuſted. The States of the Dutchy of Cleves having ſent a Deputy hither to make ſome Propoſals to the King, his Majeſty committed him to Priſon, and the next Day ordered him to go home immediately and to acquaint the States, when they had any Complaint to make, that they ſhould apply themſelves to the Royal Regency at Cleves, to which they were ſubordinate.

Hanover, January 16. N. S. Count Reventlau, Miniſter of the Adminiſtrator of Holſtein, is to come to this Place, and intends to continue here till the Congreſs is aſſembled at Brunſwick, where he is appointed to be Plenipotentiary on the part of the Duke his Maſter. This Aſſembly was appointed to meet on the 20th Inſtant, and Count Schonborn is expected there at that time from Frankfort. But there is no probability at preſent that it will be opened ſo ſoon, and the Czar has not yet nam'd his Plenipotentiaries. An Expreſs from the King of Sweden is lately paſſed through this Place, and brought us an account, that when he came away, his Majeſty was at Demir Tocca, and intended next Spring to return into his own Territories. We have receiv'd advice from Gottorp, that the King of Denmark would raiſe the blockade of Tonningen, and reſtore the Duke of Holſtein to his Dominions, provided he would not inſiſt upon Reparation for the Loſſes he has ſuſtain'd during this War, and it is thought the Two Courts will come to an Agreement in this Affair very ſpeedily. It is ſaid, the Preliminaries of Peace between the Emperor and France, are Sign'd at Radſtad by Prince Eugene and Mareſchal Villars.

Hamburgh, December 19. N. S. There has been a Conference at Moorbourg between the Elector of Hanover's Miniſters and the Deputies of this City, in order to make ſome Regulations in Trade, and to ſhorten the Quarentine to be performed by the Merchants, who are going to the Fair of Brunſwick. But the Bill of Mortality being conſiderably encreaſed laſt Week, his Electoral Highneſs would not conſent to have the Quarentine reduced. Some Days ago a Burgermaſter of Weſel was diſpatch'd to Berlin, with a Remonſtrance from the Nobility of the Dutchy of Cleves and the County of Marck, in relation to the Taxes lately eſtabliſh'd there, which they pretend are directly contrary to their Privileges. Upon his arrival he was immediately Arreſted, and ſent to Priſon, where he was kept one Night; but the next Morning he was releaſed, and order'd to return home without any delay. Preparations are making with great diligence at Copenhagen to fit out the Fleet, which is to conſiſt this Year of Thirty ſix Men of War, and the Seamen are commanded to repair to their reſpective Ships by the 1ſt of April next, upon pain of forfeiting their Pay. The Emperor is in Treaty with the Daniſh Miniſter for Six thouſand Men of the King his Maſter's Troops, and the Negotiation with the Czar for a Body of Fourteen thouſand Men, meets with no other Obſtacle, but that his Imperial Majeſty abſolutely refuſes to let them be under the Command of Prince Menzikoff. They write from Ausbourg, that a Courier was paſs'd through that Place in his way to Vienna, where he was going with the Preliminary Articles of Peace between the Emperor and France, ſign'd by Prince Eugene and Mareſchal Villars at Radſtad. It is ſaid the moſt Chriſtian King has taken it upon himſelf to make the Elector of Bavaria amends for the Loſſes he ſuffered at Munick, by paying him Four Millions of Livres yearly for four Years. The Princeſs Regent and the Senate of Sweden, after ſeveral Debates, have at laſt determin'd entirely to abandon the Province of Finland, and have already ſent Directions to withdraw their Forces which remain'd at Vaſa, that they may be the better able to defend Scania againſt the King of Denmark, and to cover the Frontiers of Sweden againſt the Muſcovites. It is thought the former of theſe things
